

Important ECF NEWS

Effective March 1st 2006 you may begin making payments for filing fees online using your credit card. Through pay.gov - the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Internet credit card payment module - attorneys can pay filing fees by credit card over the Internet and review their internet credit card transaction payment history. In order to pay your filing fees by credit card over the Internet you must select a docket event in ECF that requires payment of a filing fee and file your document.

Pleadings with fees which can presently be paid online include but are not limited to such events as:

- New Civil Complaints
- Motions to Appear Pro Hac Vice
- Notices of Appeal
- Notices of Removal

Users will be automatically directed through the Department of Treasury's internet payment process. Once the payment has been successfully completed, users will automatically return to the filing process.

With the availability of pay.gov

ALL CIVIL COMPLAINTS SHOULD BE FILED ONLINE!!!

Please check out our webpage at www.ncwd.uscourts.gov for detailed instructions on how to file and open a civil case using ECF and pay.gov.